* Perfecting Service on the Defendant:

- If your divorce is contested and you know where the Defendant lives, you will need to call the clerk's office to have him/her served through the Sheriff's Office.
- If you do NOT know where the Defendant lives, you will need to serve him/her by Publication.

 The visitation schedule provided is optional. If you choose to follow the provided visitation schedule, attach it to your settlement agreement.

Other Important Information:

- "Uncontested" means both parties are in agreement as to ALL matters.
- It is always in your best interest to obtain legal counsel.
- Neither the Court nor any courthouse staff may assist you in completing these forms.

- Fill out these forms to the best of your ability. Do NOT submit blank forms. Incomplete forms, as well as forms that are improperly filled out, may delay the grant of your divorce.
